REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of Marlboro:

I submit my fourth annual report as superintendent of schools for the supervisory union number 38.

I. SCHOOL PROGRESS. In the district as a whole the progress of the schools during the school year 1921-1922 was fairly satisfactory. Every school in the district was open for the required thirty-six weeks. The teachers were, with a few exceptions, well qualified and did good work. The attendance was about the same as the state average. The number of pupils who failed of promotion to the next grade was small.

This year all schools opened on schedule and have suffered no interruptions up to this time. There was the usual number of changes in teachers, amounting to nearly one-half the whole number in the district, but the average quality of teachers is better than we have had in any year since the close of the World war. Attendance so far is even better than it was last year, except in a few localities where heavy snow has made it difficult for pupils who have long distances to go. The average attendance for the district for September was 96.3 per cent, for October the same; for November 98.2 per cent; and for December and part of January 96.8 per cent.

Improvements have been made this year along several lines: (1) The general guidance of teachers in organizing their schools has been made more effective and reports are required at frequent intervals showing the progress and quality of the work in all classes as well as attendance. (2) A new series of arithmetic texts has been introduced and for supplementary material the Studebaker Practice Tests provide practice in the four fundamental processes in an efficient and economical way. (3) The Houston method of writing, which was introduced last year on trial, has been extended to all the schools with full equipment of copy books and the results are apparent in an improvement in the quality of handwriting. (4) A spelling book is now in use that is not merely a list of words; it was prepared from a careful study of actual needs and the words are carefully graded, and an economical method of teaching is emphasized. (5) The new series of Geography texts by Brigham and MacFarlane brings instruction in that subject up to date, both the maps and the text having been revised since the World War.

II. TEACHERS. The shortage of teachers existing throughout the state since the war has been relieved to a great extent; there are teachers enough to go around, but we have filled out the ranks with a larger number of girls just out of high school with only one summer school session for professional training. The Normal Schools provide each year less than half enough trained teachers to meet the needs of the state, so that it is not possible to secure teachers for the rural schools from that source. Increased facilities at the Normal Schools, with the proposed new dormitories, is an imperative need.

Salaries have advanced somewhat year by year and the salaries of good teachers ought not to be less at any time than they are now, but the inexperienced and untrained teachers are paid too much in proportion. We must pay a living wage to all teachers employed but we ought not to pay one who has invested neither time nor money in preparation for her work as much as we pay one who has spent several years in special training.

We need just as good teachers in the rural schools as in the village schools, and in the state aided towns we can pay them as much as the village teacher—when we can get the trained teacher.

III. SCHOOL FINANCES. It is the intent of the school law that was enacted in 1919 that the local expenditures for elementary schools throughout the state should be equalized. The following table shows to what extent this has been realized in the eight towns of this district, and the figures are fairly representative of the situation throughout the state. The figures are for the school year 1921-1922.

	Position in list of 256 towns	Elementary school cost per $1,000	State aid payments per $1,000	Local expenditure per $1,000
Sullivan	16th	$12.30	$7.37	$4.93
Marlboro	23rd	9.98	4.27	5.71
Gilsum	27th	11.60	5.59	6.01
Surry	152nd	6.85	.44	6.41
Harrisville	189th	5.56	.01	5.55
Stoddard	196th	6.02	none	6.02
Roxbury	201st	5.59	none	5.59
Nelson	228th	4.31	none	4.31

The table should be read as follows: In the list of 256 school districts in the state, arranged according to the expenditures per $1,000 of equalized valuation for all school purposes in 1921-1922, Sullivan (for example) stood 16th, and the cost of elementary schools was equivalent to a tax of $12.30 per $1,000; of this amount the state paid $7.37 in state aid, and the district paid $4.93. (Surry and Harrisville did not receive the full amount for which their budgets were approved because the legislature of 1921 did not appropriate enough to meet all the approved budgets.)

With improvements in the administration of the law with further experience, and especially if the legislature should make its appropriations large enough to meet all approved demands, we may expect to find that local expenditures for maintenance of elementary schools will "level off" more nearly at a uniform figure that will be somewhat above $5.00 per $1,000.

In estimating the amounts necessary for the district to raise at the coming March meeting, the school boards should have the figures of the above table in mind and where necessary ask for more than the five-dollar tax. The amount of state aid to be allowed for next year cannot be known definitely until the legislature has passed the appropriation bill, but the State Board of Education has asked for a sum that will provide for the approved demands of all the districts as determined from the budgets submitted last September.

The amounts needed for the school year 1923-1924 (see the school board's estimates) may be divided into two groups; one group will consist of the statutory requirements for high school tuition and per capita tax to be assessed by the selectmen without any vote of the district, and the "excess salary" of the superintendent which is determined by the joint school boards of the district in May; the other group consists of the salaries of district officers and the general appropriation for support of schools, the estimates for which are subject to change by vote of the district at its March meeting.

No definite statement can be made at this time in regard to the budget for this year's expenditures, because it has not been returned from the state office and cannot be definitely approved until the legislature now in session has passed the appropriation bill and the amount of state aid money is thus determined upon. There will doubtless be a substantial increase in the amount of state aid for next year, due to the increased cost of transportation and of health work, both of which are items subject to state aid. As was stated in the report last year, however, you are paying between $400 and $500 more for elementary school purposes than you receive in state aid and the five-dollar tax, which means that you wish to maintain the schools at a level somewhat above the average. For instance, like many other larger towns in the state, you maintain a junior high school, which is somewhat more expensive than the older organization of seventh and eighth grades, but when it is combined with the senior high school as it is here probably the increased cost of the junior high is offset by a saving in the senior high that would not be possible if you maintained only a four-year high school.

The reorganization of the high school courses made this year, with the addition of the sixth year, has resulted in an increase in the cost, as was predicted last year, because you have replaced the practice teachers from the Normal School with a regular teacher and because the larger classes have necessitated a considerable outlay for books. It was estimated last year that the high school would cost $4,500, and you appropriated $4,000 and there is about $500 income from other sources.

The $400 appropriation for salaries, insurance and general expenses of administration should be increased for next year, as it is only sufficient to cover Marlboro's share of the "excess salary" of the superintendent. Your insurance should be increased also to cover the two-room addition to the number 2 schoolhouse.

IV. SIX-YEAR HIGH SCHOOL. As soon as the addition to the schoolhouse was assured by the action of the district in the last March meeting, plans were begun for the additional year's work in the high school. The whole course of study was reorganized, so as to provide for three groups of pupils—those desiring to prepare for college, those desiring to enter clerical work after graduation, and those whose needs are of a more general nature. The plans were approved by the State Board of Education, and we now have a full six-year high school, with five full-time teachers.

V. HEALTH WORK. The examination made by the school physician and nurse in October, 1921, showed the following:

Whole number of children examined,	246
Number found with defective vision,	36
Number found with defective teeth,	151
Number found with hypertrophied tonsils,	145
Number found with adenoids,	127
Number found with malnutrition,	2
Number found with defective hearing,	9

Treatments were secured during the year as follows:

For defective vision,	14
For defective teeth,	45
For hypertrophied tonsils,	20
For adenoids,	19

Through the generosity of the Red Cross Chapter and the Community Nursing Association equipment has been purchased for dental work, and a dental clinic has been established with Dr. Parker from Keene in charge, and thus far nearly all of the children in the elementary grades have had their teeth cleaned and examined and charts made to record the defects found. When this work is completed arrangements will be made for treatments at nominal prices for those who desire such work. The community nurse is assisting in this work as well as in the regular follow-up work from the medical examinations.

Respectfully,

VERNON S. AMES.

Superintendent.
